Fairwater Marine merge with Krahn Insurance Brokers

1st February 2015 Stockholm and Aarhus: Fairwater Marine AB, the specialized Nordic marine insurance intermediary, and Krahn Insurance Brokers, Aarhus the newly established Danish marine insurance intermediary, are pleased to announce their merger today.

Fairwater Marine AB, founded in 2004, has a strong market position in Sweden and Finland with offices in 3 regional locations servicing more than 130 shipping clients regionally and worldwide.

Krahn Insurance Brokers was established by Per Krahn who has more than 30 years experience in the Danish Insurance market and the last 15 years in the marine and cargo insurance market.

Jan Risinger, founder and CEO of Fairwater Marine AB, said: "I am very pleased that we have found common ground with Per Krahn and his team and that they are joining Fairwater Marine. It will be a tremendous boost to Fairwater Marine's regional impact to have Per Krahn's experience and local knowledge within the group. By joining together we are creating a very strong partner for marine clients throughout our operational area. The partnership is another important part of our expansion in the Nordic Region, and is a major step in our combined goal of creating a powerful, Nordic marine broking capability with a global reach".

Per Krahn, founder of Krahn Insurance Brokers said: "This partnership is exactly what we need. Fairwater Marine has a great reputation and brand in the market, and we share a great many values as companies. Fairwater's employees are innovative specialists who are recognised as experts in their field. The merger provides us with the fuel to expand and develop in a way we could not have managed on our own, accelerating our expansion. By joining together we can give our clients access to Fairwater's broader global distribution network and product capabilities. The two organisations specialist knowledge complements each other very well and gives the new Fairwater Marine an edge in the market.
